

* Introductory Program

Fundamentals of Trauma Nursing

CPD - 16 hours

Tue 22 & Wed 23 July 2014

7.45 am - 4.30 pm

Function Centre

Charles La Trobe Theatre

The Royal Melbourne Hospital

Grattan St, Parkville, VIC, 3052

About the Course

This introductory course provides health professionals with the knowledge and skills to care for trauma patients in different clinical settings. This two day course includes lectures and practical skills workshops.

Topics include

- Overview of the State Trauma System
- Pelvic & Skeletal Trauma
- Spinal Column Injuries and Management
- Chest Trauma
- Head Injuries
- Abdominal Trauma
- Post Traumatic Amnesia
- Management of Soft Tissue Injuries
- Management of Shock
- Practical Skills Sessions

Program Structure

The program consists of two full day training sessions.

Program Eligibility

The program is open to Registered Nurses, Enrolled Nurses and Allied Health Staff.

Program Enrolment

The program is limited to 50 participants.

Amenities

For full day courses, lunch and refreshments provided. (Please let course coordinator know of special dietary requirements by 04 July 2014).

To Register

Please download the registration form from the following link:

http://www.mh.org.au/royal_melbourne_hospital/nursing-education-short-courses/w1/i1031959/

Registrations close: Friday, 04 July 2014

Registration is from 7.45am - 8.00am

Program Duration

8.00am - 4.30pm

Course fees

External Applicants: $350.00
Melbourne Health Employees: $200.00

For more information about the clinical content of this course, contact:

Cassie Penca

Clinical Nurse Educator
Ph: 03 9342 7000 pager: 3388
Email: cassie.penca@mh.org.au

For registration and payment queries, contact:

Short Course Administration

Ph: 03 9342 4981
Fax: 03 9342 4970
Email: shortcourse@mh.org.au

T R A U M A N U R S I N G 2 0 1 4